

Contact: Kate Smith
Law Office of Kate Smith
817-479-0562
kate@katesmithlaw.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kate Smith Recognized as Master Credentialed by Collaborative Divorce Texas

(March 27, 2017) Kate Smith has been recognized as a Master/Credentialed Collaborative Professional by Collaborative Divorce Texas. To receive this highest level of distinction from Collaborative Divorce Texas, Kate completed a rigorous credentialing process, which included the fulfillment of specific standards for education, training, case experience, service and leadership. Achievement of this designation demonstrates Ms. Smith's commitment to the highest standards of collaborative practice.

Kate Smith is a graduate of Texas Wesleyan University School of Law (magna cum laude) and is licensed by the State Bar of Texas. She also graduated from Pepperdine University School of law school with a LL.M in Dispute Resolution. Ms. Smith currently practices family law in Tarrant, Dallas, Denton, and Collin Counties.

The Collaborative Divorce process gives couples the opportunity to confidentially create their own customized divorce, focusing on protecting their families and preserving their resources and assets through solutions-oriented interest-based negotiation.

Collaborative Divorce Texas is a non-profit organization which provides it members with training, education and resources dedicated to helping families navigate divorce using an alternative to litigation. For more information about Collaborative Divorce Texas, go to www.CollaborativeDivorceTexas.com.